

First Comes Love

ONE-STOP BRIDAL DESTINATION WITH HEART

"We Provide Everything but the Bride & Groom"

Walk in the door of First Comes Love in Rock Springs, and you discover not only bridal and formal wear, but endless information and a staff ready to help you in every way possible. "At First Comes Love, our motto is 'We Provide Everything but the Bride & Groom!'" says owner Sonya Plemel.

In business for 14 years, First Comes Love offers formal wear to cover any occasion. "We offer wedding gowns; bridesmaid, flower girl and mothers' dresses; and prom and quincenera dresses!" Sonya also offers a tuxedo rental service, including formal shoes. "With six paid rentals, the groom's tux is free!" Sonya says. When purchasing your bridal gown, First Comes Love will help you find the perfect dress — and then they will help you keep it for the future with their Wedding Gown Preservation services!

Formal wear is not the only product offered by First Comes Love. Find your perfect accessories and decorations, even unique gift baskets. Invitations are available from First Comes Love, including graduation announcements!

Part of the charm of First Comes Love is their connection to the community. Sonya and her team have their finger on the pulse of Sweetwater County, and can offer you recommendations on everything from photography to limos! They genuinely care about your experience, and are ready and happy to help you in any way possible. With an experienced team, including a professional makeup artist and seamstress, Sonya provides the finest care to her customers.

At Wyoming Weddings, we encourage Wyoming brides to check out what our great state has to offer. At First Comes Love, they believe in this as well, and are well-connected with business people in Sweetwater County. Their care for their community is as genuine as their care
