EMOTIONAL STORYTELLER
ANNE BRANDE

“SENSITIVE, ROMANTIC WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHY THAT BEAUTIFULLY EXPRESSES YOUR TRUE FEELINGS FOR EACH OTHER... GUARANTEED!”

Fourth-Generation Wyoming Wedding Photographer Anne Brande believes in treating every bride as if she were her own daughter. Anne says, “Every bride wants to have the most incredibly romantic day imaginable! Most importantly, she wants to have fun and share this incredible time with her family and friends. With every wedding I photograph I feel the same excitement as I did on my wedding day.”

Before the wedding, Anne gets to know the couple so she can create an emotional story full of love and beauty. Anne knows this doesn’t happen just by booking a wedding and showing up on that day. Anne reveals, “I get to know and appreciate the couple as an intimate friend or mother would. Seeing tears of joy in their eyes on their wedding day really makes my day!”

Anne has been in the professional darkroom from a very young age. “No matter how good your skills in Photoshop, you cannot make up for a poorly created photograph,” Anne shares. “Lighting, artistic composition, and color harmony are so very important. Even the angle from which a bride is photographed can add or subtract twenty pounds.”

Anne offers this money-back guarantee: “If you don’t cry tears of joy when you see your photographs, we will give you all your money back. You must be THRILLED with your photographs or we don’t want you to pay us.” Anne also offers a lifetime guarantee: “If for any reason you lose your albums in a move or through damage or fading, we will replace them at no additional cost.”

Anne cautions a bride to look closely at the work of the photographers she is considering. In the photograph samples do the couples look genuinely happy and in love, or do they look posed, unnatural, or even angry? Also, consider what the photographer is offering. Are the number of pictures limited to just a “wedding album”? What about all of the other images? Will you receive all the photographs, but only on a CD? Anne shares, “I always feel saddened for

“When Chet and I discovered Anne’s commitment to quality and her money-back guarantee, we knew she was the photographer for us. The photographs Anne created were priceless. She really understood what was important to our relationship and why we fell in love. Anne’s ability to capture our entire wedding experience was amazing. Words cannot express our thanks.”

couples who receive their CD and then realize they are still facing another investment for quality printing of their images.”

At Ludwig Photography all images created belong to the couple and are retouched, enhanced and printed as real photographs of the highest quality. Anne creates an emotional story with all the photographs in a volume set of custom-designed leather storybook albums. Anne also loves creating some very special “gifts” for each couple and even creates a complimentary book of the bride in her gown.
